

What We Need From You

Everything on this page is something only you can answer. Marcelo handles the rest.

1 TWO PRICING QUESTIONS

BLOCKS THE ADS

- Your two price sheets don't match — what's the difference? The fixed package for a full bathroom is $15,500. The starting budget for the same room is $12,500. What does the package include that the starting budget doesn't?
- Roughly what do materials run on top? Every price we list says materials aren't included. A range is fine — "most people spend $4,000 to $9,000 on tile, vanity, fixtures and the toilet."

Why it matters: if someone clicks an ad expecting $15,500 and it turns out to be $23,000, we've paid good money for a meeting that was never going to close.

2 TWO GOOGLE REVIEWS

- Pick two from your Google Business Profile and send: the review text, the customer's first name and last initial, and their town.

Right now those pages literally display "[Paste a real Google review here]".

3 TWO NUMBERS

- About how many bathrooms do you do in a year?
- Are your build slots actually limited right now? If they're not, we'll delete that line — we're not saying it if it isn't true.

4 ONE THING TO CHECK

IMPORTANT

- The website shows three testimonials — "Sarah & Mark T.", "Emily R." and "James P." Are these real customers of yours? If they came from whoever built the original site, we have to take them down.

Made-up testimonials in advertising aren't just bad form — they're against the law. Real reviews work better anyway.

5 THE VIDEO

- See the other sheet — How to Shoot the Video. Your phone, about 30 seconds, shoot it three times and send all three.

This is the single most valuable thing you can hand us. One good video outperforms any photo we have.

6 HEADS UP ON THE VAN

- The wrap reads "LICENCED & INSURED". In the US it's spelled "LICENSED". Entirely your call whether it's worth having the shop redo that one decal.

Already handled: we pulled your licence number off the new van — NJ HIC #13VH08744800 — and it's live on the site now. The van looks sharp, and those photos are going straight into the ads.
